

INVITATION

Please join the North Country Resource Conservation and Development Area Council (RC&D) for an evening of good talk and good cheer.

When: Tuesday, February 17, 2009

Time: Social Hour at 5 pm

Dinner at 6 pm

Program at 7 pm

Where: The Common Man Inn, Plymouth, NH

Why: This evening is dedicated to charting new strategies for conserving and developing our natural and community resources from the Lakes Region to Coos County. Congressman Paul Hodes will be on hand to discuss his vision and congressional action(s) to help revitalize our local and regional economies while conserving our precious natural resources. More importantly, he wants to hear from YOU. In addition, we will invite attendees to help the North Country RC&D refine its new 5-year Strategic Plan.

If you want, you can attend the entire evening or just the program. However, your RSVP is required in either case.

For more information on this program please call North Country RC&D at 603-527-2093, send an email to richard.demark@nh.usda.gov or check out our website at www.nhrd.net

Please fill out, tear off and return the slip below with the appropriate amount enclosed
